

THE ROLE OF THE COACH BASKETBALL CLINIC

The following information is for Basketball Co-ordinators and coaches. A two hour coaching clinic on the role of the coach is being offered by Dale Platek for metropolitan and country associations in Victoria. A coach for over 40 years Dale has coached winning teams of both men and women's programs over the last 33 years in Victoria. His teams have won or been runner-up in grades from U-14 girl's and boys, U-16 girl's, U-18 boys and VSSSA competitions. He has coached at the men's and women's levels in Country Victoria also with great success. This clinic complete with notes for all participants will cover information that usually is not part of previous clinics. It will include the following:

- Identifying your coaching philosophy.
- Selecting your team personnel.
- How to maximise a training session.
- The role of conditioning, teaching fundamentals, drill selection, game conditions, preparing for your opponent, housekeeping.
- Pre-season, In-season, and post-season planning.
- Pre-game, In-game, Post-game protocols.
- Substitutions, Use of timeouts, bench protocol.
- The role of an assistant coach/manager.
- Dealing with Parents, Players, Spectator's, and Officials.
- Players Code of Conduct.
- The Pyramid of Success.
- Lombardi's Philosophy.

It is envisioned that coaches will be able to share thoughts on each of these topics within the time constraints available. More details on Dale as a speaker are available at www.daleplatekspeaking.com. The cost of the clinic will be $150 which covers travel and speaking fee. Contact details for Dale also available on the website listed.
